DESAPRO enters into a distribution partnership with VONK B.V. for Netherlands, Belgium and Benelux

We are happy to announce that starting January 1, 2024 DESAPRO has entered into a new representation & distribution partnership with VONK B.V for the geographical area of Netherlands, Belgium and Benelux.

Founded 1959 as EDAK, today DESAPRO, we manufacture aluminum cases that are engineered to endure the severe conditions of field operations, storage, as well as military and commercial transport. The company has a wide range of products consisting of MILEX 19 inch rack mounts, STANEX transport cases and PORTEX instrument cases, as well as KOOLEX air conditioning units.

The new distributor Vonk B.V. in Piershil, www.vonkbv.com, is a company specialised in solving packaging problems and offers a great portfolio of sizes.

We expect to have a prosperous future together. Please send any request on our products to info@vonkbv.com.

Best regards,

DESAPRO AG
